

Make the Sun!

Count the number of sun spots and match it to the number found on the clothespin rays!

Sun spots are cooler areas on the sun that appear slightly darker than other areas. Astronomers have to use special telescopes to see sun spots. Trying to find them with the naked eye can cause severe damage to your eyes.

